

Why does Easter matter?

Not just as a tradition...

Not just as a story...

But as something that actually changes everything.

If Jesus truly rose from the dead—

then life is not what we thought it was.

And neither is death.

What Happened

Easter or better called Resurrection Day is not first a feeling.

It is a claim.

Jesus of Nazareth was crucified.

He was buried.

On the third day, the tomb was empty.

His followers saw Him—alive again.

This is the center of the Christian faith.

Not advice. Not inspiration.

An event.

Why It Matters

If Jesus rose from the dead, then:

1. Sin Has Been Dealt With

The cross was not a tragedy—it was a payment.

Easter is the receipt.

- What separates us from God has been answered
- Guilt is not the final word

2. Death Is Not the End

We live as though death wins.

Christ's Resurrection says otherwise.

- The grave is not ultimate
- Death has an expiration date

We do not just cope with death—
we face it with hope.

3. Jesus Is Who He Said He Is

Many teachers have lived.

Many have died.

Only One walked out of the grave.

- Not just a teacher
- Not just a prophet
- Lord

What This Means for Us

Easter is not just something to believe.

It is something to respond to.

We are invited to:

- Turn from living life on our own terms
- Trust in Christ—not ourselves
- Follow Him into a new kind of life

A Gentle Contrast

What we tend to believe:

- “I just need to be a better person.”
- “Time will fix things.”
- “Death is just part of life.”

What Easter shows us:

- We need rescue, not improvement
- Time doesn't heal everything
- Death is an enemy that has been defeated

A Better Way Forward

It is better not to carry this alone.

It is better not to pretend everything is fine.

It is better to come honestly.

Next Steps

- Talk to God—even if you don't know how
 - Read one of the Gospels (start with John)
 - Ask your questions—don't bury them

A Simple Prayer

“God, if this is true...
help me to see it.
Help me to trust You.
Help me to follow.”

You're Invited

We're not here because we have it all together.

We're here because something happened— and it changed everything.

If you want to talk, ask, or explore—
we would be glad to walk with you.

Christ's Resurrection matters

Because Jesus didn't stay dead—and that changes everything about sin, death, and our future.
