BIG IDEA:

Because God has called us into Christ, we must display His character and preserve the unity His Spirit created.

SERMON TRUTHS (FROM THE PASSAGE)

- 1 Your purpose begins with God's call—not personal ambition. (v. 1)
- 2 Walk worthy: let daily conduct match your calling. (v. 1)
- 3 Humility and gentleness make unity livable. (v. 2)
- 4 Patience bears with others in love. (v. 2)
- 5 Unity requires eager, active care. (v. 3)
- 6 One body, Spirit, hope, Lord, faith, and baptism ground our life together. (vv. 4–5)

THEOLOGICAL THEMES

- Calling and sanctification
- Christlike character
- Spirit-created unity
- The one people of God

GOSPEL FOCUS

- Christ called us from death to life.
- His grace gives the new walk He commands.
- The Spirit joins believers into one body.

KINGDOM APPLICATION (PRINCIPLE FOR TODAY)

Christ's rule becomes visible when His people live as one body—humble in posture, patient in love, and diligent to guard peace.

KEY SCRIPTURES

Philippians 1:27
Colossians 3:12–15
John 17:20–23
1 Corinthians 12:12–13

ONE-SENTENCE TAKEAWAY

Live worthy of your calling by displaying Christ's character and protecting His people's unity.

FIVE APPLICATION SCENARIOS

How does this truth apply in everyday life?

- 1 At home: choose gentleness over winning.
- 2 At church: pursue peace before taking sides.
- 3 In conflict: listen patiently and speak truth in love.
- 4 At work: serve faithfully without craving status.
- 5 Online: protect Christian unity before posting.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS: HEAD • HEART • HANDS

Head: What has God called His people to?

Heart: Where is pride disturbing my peace?

Hands: Whom will I patiently pursue this week?

INVITATION QUESTION

Does your daily walk fit the calling you have received?

WITNESSING STATEMENT

Jesus does more than give us purpose—He makes us one people who learn to live His way.

MEMORY VERSE

Ephesians 4:1–3

Walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called... eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
