

A CONGREGATION OF THE
CHRISTIAN REFORMED CHURCH IN NORTH AMERICA

What Does Christ's Community Church Believe?

*What does it mean to be a faithful,
biblical church today?*

Chandler, Arizona • Est. 1986

OUR FOUNDATION

Christ's Community Church was founded in 1986 and is part of the Christian Reformed Church in North America.

We stand in the historic Christian faith — rooted in Scripture, clarified through faithful teaching, and lived out in community.

OUR AUTHORITY

We believe the Bible alone is God's Word — our final authority for faith and life.

OUR CONFESSIONS

To clearly express what Scripture teaches, we subscribe to the Three Forms of Unity as our doctrinal standards:

- The Belgic Confession (1561)
- The Heidelberg Catechism (1563)
- The Canons of Dort (1618–1619)

These are not above Scripture — they summarize what we believe Scripture teaches.

First, The Belgic Confession

What We Believe About God and Truth

Written in 1561 during persecution, this confession explains the core truths of the Christian faith.

Key Emphases

- God — One true, eternal, sovereign Lord
- Scripture — Fully sufficient and trustworthy
- Creation & Providence — God rules over all things
- Christ — Fully God and fully man, our only Savior
- The Church — The true community of believers
- Salvation — By grace alone, through faith alone

In short: a clear, systematic summary of the Christian faith.

Common Misunderstandings

- These confessions are not replacements for the Bible
- They are not traditions of men
- They are tools to help us understand Scripture clearly

The Heidelberg Catechism

The Comfort of Belonging to Christ

Written in 1563, this catechism teaches the faith in a warm, personal, and pastoral way — built around three themes:

- Guilt — Our sin and need
- Grace — Christ's saving work
- Gratitude — Our response in obedience

Famous opening question:

“What is your only comfort in life and death?” — That I am not my own, but belong, body and soul, to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ.

In short: the Christian life explained as comfort, redemption, and response.

Questions to Reflect On

- What do I believe about God?
- What is my only comfort in life and death?
- How am I responding to God's grace?

The Canons of Dort

God's Sovereign Grace in Salvation

Written in 1618–1619 to address false teaching about salvation — often summarized as the doctrines of grace.

- Salvation is entirely God's work
- Humanity is unable to save itself
- Christ's work is powerful and effective
- God graciously brings sinners to faith
- Believers are kept by God's power

In short: God saves sinners — from beginning to end.

What This Means in Real Life

- We preach Christ clearly
- We teach Scripture faithfully
- We depend on God's grace fully
- We live gratefully and obediently
- We walk together as a church family
